Pennsylvania Pretzels Have No Trouble in Defeating Their Visitors.

Reading, Pa., May 15.—The local United States Leaguers had no trouble in defeating the Washington aggregation this afternoon. The score was 7 to 4. Schaeffer was on the mound a dozen games to-day, but good field-for Reading, and was effective with ing back of him saved Camnitz from a bad defeat. In the first inning the eleventh. With two out and a man on second, Brown purposely passed Clarke to get at Humphries, a notoriously weak hitter. Humphries slammed the first ball pitched to centre field for a clean hit, and Egan scored the winning run. Keefe lasted only seven innings. Humphries stopped the visitors absolutely in the last five rounds. Score:

Society and Lovers of Horse Out in Full Force at Keswick-Some of Finest Hunters in America Shown.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Keswick, Va., May 15.—Despite a steady downpour most of the day, the Keswick Hunt Club horse show was a great success in every way. Heavy rains and bad roads did not dampen the ardor of the lover of the horse, and society was out in full force. The show was as fine as ever given on these grounds. Some of the linest hunters in America were shown and as fine harness horses as are found in any ring.

Pertinent Comment By GUS MALBERT.

Rain put a crimp into all baseball day gone means money lost to the possibility yesterday, and both the franchise owners. The New Yorkers Rebs and the Knickerbockers took a are making their headquarters at the day off to look at the sights. Late in the afternoon, after the damage had been all done and Lee Park looked more like a training ground for aquatic devotees than a ball yard, the sun managed to break through, making the heliday aimest complete for the player on their Western trip. In the meantime the "bugs" will have the opportunity to size up every club in the league. After New York fintenedly important, especially in view of weather conditions generally, the production of the player o

Ready for Members

Applications for membership in the Old Dominion Athletic Association are coming in at a surprising rate, and the incorporators of that organization believe that they have started the first move toward giving Richmond some real high class sparring exhibitions. The first match to be staged by the new association will be that between Mike Donaldson and Charlie Gardner, of Washington.

These hoys have been naxious for many weeks to let the public know just what they can do in the sparring line. They have been tor many weeks to lef the public know just what they can do in the sparring line. They have been doing a great amount of preliminary work, and both are nearly fit for the engagement on Saturday night, May 25. The agreements call for earth weights, and while neither will endeavor to take off any flesh, both will tip the beam at about 140 pounds.

For the information of those who may want to John the new club application blanks may be secured at McCoy's. Eighth and Broad Streets, or of Mike Donaldson, at Murphy's Hotel. The exhibition will take place at the City Anditorium. It will go six fast rounds, and will be purely for polats. Several preliminary matches will be arranged.

Newnham will start on a scouting expedition through the wild and wooly. He expects—nay, he predicts—that the club will leave home on the long jaunt safety tagged to first place. After that there will be nothing to it but the flag raising next spring.

Facing the situation squarely, President Landgraf and Alfie Newnham are scouting around trying to tighten up the loose places in the defensive play of the Rebs. That one or two corners might be helped is conceded. The frouble is to get the right man for the jobs. Money is not the question, still to be profligate is foolish. The idea is to get some ball player of known ability rather than try useless experiments. Somehow or other the heavers have not measured up to expectations.
